

LARGE CROWD SEES HEAVIES WORK OUT

Why Christians Are Persecuted

DO YOU know why the Arménians and Syrians are persecuted?

BECAUSE they are Christians and to kill two "Christian dogs" insults the Moslem in entrance to his home.

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 22.—With the return of cool weather the large crowds who have seen Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey in training to date packed the camps of the heavyweight rivals today. Forty-eight hundred persons paid $2,400 to watch Dempsey box four rounds and while the attendance of Willard's camp was not announced, the crowd was nearly as large.

Dempsey boxed two rounds with the Jimmie Kid and two with Sergeant Bill Tate. Tate had no difficulty in hitting the challenger with his right hand and right hook. The referee's count of four necessitated because of the cut over his eye apparently impaired his judgment of distance but his trainers said he would improve as his condition works and that he should be at his best within a week.

Willard boxed the usual eight rounds and three of those were box and other exercises. It was the tamest workout the champion has had in several days. Jack Heisner, the Chicago heavyweight, quit the camp because of an injury to his neck received when his head struck the unpainted edge of the ring when Willard knocked him out for the third time Friday.

With the arrival tomorrow of Major J. Drexel Biddle, president of the army, navy and civilian board of boxing control, definite announcement in regard to the referee situation is expected to be made. There was an unconfirmed report tonight that Jack Welch, a veteran ring official of San Francisco, was under consideration as the final choice.

GERMANS AGREE TO SIGN PEACE TREATY

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

being considered by the council. One of the communications is understood to announce that the assembly voted in favor of signing the treaty with certain reservations.

It is not known what the reservations are beyond a declaration to admit the guilt of Germany in starting the war and to give up the former emperor for trial.

No More Changes

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, June 22.—The council of four has definitely rejected the German suggestion that further alterations be made in the peace treaty.

The council received four notes from the Germans, which it assumed to have been prepared in advance and were held to await advices from Weimar on the result of the meeting of the assembly. President Wilson went at once to the residence of Premier Lloyd George where the council took up consideration of the notes.

One of the notes from the new German government declared that Germany was ready to sign peace if the clauses making Germany responsible for the war and calling for the trial of the former emperor were eliminated.

The council of four remained in session until 8 o'clock in the evening and then adjourned for dinner. The council met again at 9 o'clock and after brief further consideration took its decision to reject the German request.

12 New Points

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, June 22.—Saturday—The council of four today discussed 12 points raised by the last German note and sent a reply to the effect that six of these were sufficiently covered in the treaty and that the other six would be made the subject of a protocol to be added to the treaty.

The council today reached a conclusion with regard to the protection of minorities in Poland. The reparations terms of the Austrian treaty were not completed and will be taken up again Monday.

GIRL HURT WHEN SPEEDING AUTO CRASHES INTO CURB

Miss Marie Callahan, who lives at the Colorado hotel, 1884 North Main street, was thrown from a roadster driven by Julius F. Justin and painfully injured yesterday evening at 7 p.m.

According to witnesses Justin was in town and drove the car around the corner of First and Main street at a high rate of speed. The car hit the curbside in turning the corner and threw Miss Callahan on the pavement. The girl was placed in another car and hurried to the Tulsa hospital where an examination showed that her injuries were not serious. A group of angry citizens escorted Justin to the police station.

Half Million Men in Allied Invasion Army

By The Associated Press.

COLOGNE, Saturday, June 22.—More than half a million allied soldiers in the occupied areas stood ready Saturday night for a further invasion of Germany. The troops concentration ordered by Marshal Foch has been completed up and down the Rhine and every detail has been worked out for an advance in the event Germany does not accept the terms.

The concentration just completed is America's greatest display of strength since the armistice.

LOCAL AMERICAN LEGION CHAPTER GETS CHARTER

Joe Carson post of the American Legion received its charter Friday night. The local world war veterans not only have the distinction of being the largest post west of the Mississippi river but also the first organization to receive a charter from the national headquarters. The Tulsa post was the second to go to bat on a membership drive and over quantity have more men enrolled than all other posts in the state.

SALVATION ARMY IS IN NEED OF $8,000

Only $12,000 of $20,000 Raised Last Week so Campaign Is to Be Continued

In an effort to secure the $18,000 to be collected after the Salvation Army campaign for $20,000 a week, the organization's general secretary will be among the featured speakers at the summer tour of the west next week, soliciting funds to make possible the enlarging and remodeling of the local citadel as planned by the Salvation Army officials.

The drive, which was held under the auspices of the local Carson post of the American Legion, received hearty support from the smaller salaried members, put owing to the absence from the city of several persons who were expected to give large subscriptions, only $12,000 was received. Few of the donations exceeded $100 but there were more than 1,000 subscriptions. Horace Hogan, who directed the campaign, however, said that large subscriptions will be received this week and that these will more than make the drive successful.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to 1.

"Shack" hadn't worked an entire game since his victory in Minneapolis when the blues were invading that town some weeks ago. He was overdue to pitch a good game and he pitched one.

He let the Brewers have nine hits but gave up only one run, and he turned back the Brewers of Clarence Brown in the second game of the series, 4 to